Re: 18-cv-942 SEC v. Nicholas J. Genovese, et.al.

Dear Judge Koeltl;

I received from the Plaintiff, [REDACTED] May 14, 2020, a copy of your order dated April 23, 2020 "lifting the stay" in the above case.

It is my understanding that when the court issues an order or decision, that the Plaintiff and Defendant are to be notified simultaneously.

In this incident I was not notified at all by the Court of its decision of April 23rd to lift the stay in this proceeding.

This is a violation of my Fourteenth Amendment Procedural and Substantive Due Process rights to the United States Constitution.

I would hope that after this incident that your Honor will ensure that I, the defendant, receive notice of any orders or decisions issued by the Court at the same time the Plaintiff receives their notice.

pg. 2 of 2

I cannot rely on the Plaintiff, nor should I, honestly to provide copies of the Court's Orders or Decisions to me, as this is the job of the Court not the Plaintiff.

Respectfully submitted.

Nicholas J. Genovese.
